Congressman Colden at the Capitol

By CHARLES J. COLDEN WASHINGTON, July 29, Special to The Herald—One of the worst abuses of receiverships and bankruptcy proceedings has occurred in the case of the Julian Petroleum company, the receivers were allowed compensation of $210,000 for a period of 18 months, and in addition, the attorneys received the sum of $178,250. In the Richmond Oil company receivership, an operating loss of over $10,000,000 was incurred, and at the same time fees of a million and a half dollars were paid to the receiver, his attorneys, auditors and appraisers.

The entire report is a convincing indictment, not only of judges, but of their appointees. It clearly shows the reason why thousands of the citizens of Southern California lost the part of their investments and in many cases all of their investments. Any time under the very noses of the Federal judges, themselves, it points out clearly that these proceedings have been not only scandalous and wasteful, but a violation of financial ethics. If the people of Southern California were familiar with all the details of these receiverships, there would be a demand for judicial reform, not only in the Supreme Court, but reaching to all the Federal courts.

BATTLE ROYAL. The House had a battle royal over a bill to authorize the President to appoint not more than six administrative assistants, with a salary of $10,000 per year. The President is very overworked. His staff at the White House is inadequate. So the Democratic members supported a bill to give the President some aid and relief.

The Republicans seized upon this as a partisan measure and made a bitter fight against it. They also resorted to dilatory tactics and staged a filibuster by demanding a quorum and roll call. But the Democratic leaders succeeded in shutting off the objections and the bill was passed by a good majority and now goes to the Senate.

to be more alert. According to U. P. the proposed rules are:
1. All players, except the pitcher, shall go to their positions on the field and return to the bench after an inning on the double.
2. The pitcher will have no warm up pitches when he goes to the mound but will pitch directly to the first batter.
3. Throwing of the ball around the infield after an out would be eliminated.
4. The quick pitch would be legalized.
5. First baseman up in an inning will take his position at the plate as quickly as possible without delay.
6. Any obvious stalling by the pitcher shall draw from the umpire the penalty of "one ball."
7. Any obvious stalling by the batter shall draw from the umpire the penalty of "one strike."
8. Catcher shall not run down first baseline to back up first baseman on balle hit to the infield and thrown to first base.
9. Substitute base-runners shall be inserted for the pitcher and catcher when they reach first base.
10. The team coach or manager may not come on the playing field for a conference during an inning unless summoned by the playing captain.
